THE PSALM

Psalm 42:1–3. Quaemadmodum

Music by Herbert Howells

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks,

so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God;

when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

My tears have been my meat day and night,

while they daily say unto me, Where is now thy God?

6 On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples
 a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines,
 of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear.

⁷ And he will destroy on this mountain
 the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
 the covering that is spread over all nations;
⁸ he will swallow up death forever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
 for the Lord has spoken.

⁹ It will be said on that day,
 “See, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
 This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
 let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.”

THE SECOND LESSON

The Gospel according to St. John 14:1–6

14 “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. ² In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. ⁴ And you know the way to the place where I am going.” ⁵ Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” ⁶ Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

THE ANTHEM

"Bring us, O Lord God"

Gerald Near (b. 1942)

Bring us, O Lord God, at our last awakening
into the house and gate of Heaven,
to enter into that gate and dwell in that house,
where there shall be no darkness nor dazzling, but one equal light;
no noise nor silence, but one equal music;
no fears or hopes, but one equal possession;
no ends or beginnings, but one equal eternity,
in the habitations of thy glory and dominion,
world without end. Amen.

— John Donne (1572 - 1631)

This anthem was commissioned by the Choir of Christ Church Parish in Honor of Kenneth Alan Karadin, Church Musician, on the occasion of his retirement in 2017, having served Christ Church for forty years.
